Objectives of

To increase the interest in and raise the standard of genealogical research and compilation by means of educational programs, workshops, and the publication of genealogical data.

To encourage and instruct members in the art and practice of genealogical research and compilation, as well as to acquaint members with sources of genealogical material in Ashley County and elsewhere.

To serve, through its periodicals and otherwise, as a medium of exchange of genealogical information.

To promote the collection, preservation, and utilization of manuscripts, documents and other materials of genealogical value.

To aid local libraries in their maintenance and acquisition of genealogical materials.

From the President's Desk

Dear Friends:

Have you noticed how much communication has changed just in the last few years? The words FAX and E-Mail and Voice Mail are now a part of our vocabulary. I worry that the practise of writing real letters will soon be a thing of the past. How will our children and grandchildren ever know our thoughts if we neglect to leave them written down where they can be found and read many years down the road?

As Claude and I have searched for family information we have been blessed to find some wonderful things:

1. A letter written by his grandfather to help his descendants know something about him and his life. He speaks of his love for his wife and children, his grief at the death of one of those children and how God changed him and led him to a life of service in his church. I never knew Charles Preston Spainhour but I know I would have loved him.

2. Several family letters that were mailed back and forth from Arkansas to Texas with information about hard times, lack of jobs and the difficulty of providing a decent burial for the Grandma and Grandpa in the family. You read the sparse words and bad grammar but you sense the closeness and shared love of the family members.

3. A yellowed telegram from my aunt Pearl in Clarksville to my aunt Grace in Fort Smith telling her that my dear cousin Fuzzy (Ruby Florine) had died of ruptured appendix. She was only ten years old.

4. Several wonderful wills that show the love of a father as he plans out his last gifts to his family and some very pointed remarks to in-laws who had already been given more than they deserved. I love the wills I have found, they have brought my people to life for me.

Claude's ancestors, who came here from Switzerland in 1740, were Moravians and every one of their villages kept a journal of the lives of their members. It is fascinating to read about the weather, crops, visitors, births, deaths and other happenings that occurred. Here are two excerpts about Claude's family.

December 4, 1774 - This morning, between three and four o'clock, a little daughter was born to Dorrel Stohr. Sister Spoehauer went home in the afternoon. We were very grateful for her service among us.

And from 1777- January 1 9, A healthy little daughter was born to Sister Kapp. Sister Spoehauer, the midwife, was brought from Bethania during the night.

And in 1779 -August 25, One hundred and sixty head of cattle were driven through the town on their way to Virginia. It is said they are for the prisoners from Burgoyne's Army.

Can't you just imagine the excitement in that little town to see all those cattle and all the talk for days about where they were going and what they would be used for and the doubts that those prisoners would ever see that beef. I can almost smell the dust and hear the children yelling.

These journals fill eleven volumes and are called The Record of the Moravians in North Carolina. Big, beautiful old books, full of details about the lives of the people from 1752 to 1878.

I could mention several others but I saved one of the best for last. I contacted all of the extended family that lived in Clarksville where I grew up in search of family information. Once they knew I was looking for pictures and articles, etc., many of my cousins helped me look. I had a note from one in Ludwig, AR; where my grandparents grew up, married and raised their family; Come up and see what I found. Her mother-in-law had kept scrapbooks of all the years she was active in Home Demonstration Clubs, many so old the paper was brown and rotting. There on one page was a photograph of my grandmother in her garden. This picture was taken before I was born so Granny looks younger than I remember her - but her gardening clothes look the same, a long dress with an apron over it and one of Grandpa's old hats. There is a handwritten note under the picture, Mrs. W.V. Vaughn in her garden. She has 23 different vegetables growing in this garden. Nov. 1, 1934 Every time I look at this picture and read that note, I remember all the visits Granny and I had as she worked in her garden.

I hope you will begin searching for any bit of written information your family may have left; recipes, letters, diaries, scrapbooks; copy them and keep the original in a safe place. You may find something wonderful. Start writing some letters of your own or write down descriptions of events or people. Let's leave some of our thoughts and feelings on paper for our families to find. My daughter-in-law, Cathy, has written letters to both of her little girls about their birth and how excited we all were to see them for the first time and how much they were welcomed and loved. I wish I had done that too.

I'd be happy to know if you agree or disagree, but don't try to FAX me, write me a note. I love 'em!

Mary Spainhour

Index To 1900 Census

Ashley County Arkansas

In 1988-89 Ashely County Genealogical Society members abstracted this index as a guide in finding families and individuals residing in Ashley County, Arkansas, when the 1900 census was enumerated. The index is listed in the order it appears on census microfilm by family number and by township. As always, we recommend that researchers use the index for assistance only, and that the original entire entry should be read. There is much other information about all persons in the household, including month and year of birth and relationship to head of the house. The abstractors attempted to be as accurate as possible with name spellings, etc., but handwriting is difficult to decipher, and sometimes only a "best guesstimate" is the result. The entire census was reread after the original abstractions. Those who deserve thanks for this are: Morene HISAW, Ella Mae WHITE, Lois HAGOOD, Faith NOWLIN, and Marilyn HUDGENS. Thanks also for the help and cooperation of the staff at Paul Sullins Library in Crossett.

Message From the Editor

Crossett will have a Centennial Celebration in 1999. We would like to devote one issue of that year to early Crossett history. If you have any records, letters, ciatations, programs of events, diaries, etc. that would be of interest we would appreciate a copy (we know that you would not want to part with the original) to publish. If we are to do this special issue we must have your help.

Records of Funerals taken from Jones Funeral Home Records

Sketches Of Early Ashley County Families

C. H. ANDREWS

C. H. Andrews, planter, Petersburg, Arkansas. This enterprising and successful agriculturist was originally from Georgia. His birth occurring in 1887, and is a son of William ANDREWS, also a native of Georgia. The father was in many of the Indian Wars, also in the War of 1812 under JACKSON, being a participant in the battle of New Orleans. He died in 1856 and the mother in 1865. C. H. ANDREWS began life for himself in Alabama in 1844, and later married to Miss Martha HEWEY, of Alabama, daughter of S. J. HEWEY. In 1851 Mr. ANDREWS moved to Arkansas, settled in Ashley County, and entered the first land in Marie Saline Township, about three miles from the present site of Petersburg in 1859. He first entered 200 acres, but now owns 320 acres of hill land, and has forty-five acres under cultivation. He averages from 800 to 1,000 pounds of cotton and twenty bushels of corn to the acre. He has an excellent farm, the soil being unusually fertile. To his marriage was born one daughter, Emily, now the wife of J. P. NEAL, of Ashley County, who resides about five miles from Petersburg. Mr. ANDREWS was married, a second time, to Miss Mary O. HOKE, daughter of W. H. HOKE, who died in 1879, and who was constable of Marie Saline Township, for some time. Mr. HOKE participated in the late war, and was under Col. WRIGHT and later FAGAN. To Mr. and Mrs. ANDREWS were born six living children: Arthur La Fayette, C. H., Jr., Lillon, Pauline, Annie Bell and Josie Lee. Mr. ANDREWS was in the late war in the Ninth Arkansas, in LORING'S division, BUFORD'S brigade and Col. DUNLAP'S infantry, and at the battle of Baker's Creek he was taken prisoner. He was confined seven months, and then was paroled, and returned home. He then resumed his farming operations and this he has carried on ever since. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and he and his wife are honored members of the Baptist Church.

Wade H. ALLEN

Wade H. ALLEN is a prosperous citizen of this section of the country, and was born in Franklin, GA on March 17, 1817, being the son of Benjamin W. ALLEN, a native of North Carolina, and a son of William ALLEN, also a resident of the Old North State. Benjamin W. ALLEN filled the office of justice of the peace in North Carolina for about twenty years, but afterward moved to Georgia, where he passed to his long home in 1860. The same year of his death, his son, Wade H. ALLEN moved to the state of Arkansas, and bought 200 acres of land, and by dint of good management and industry he became the owner of 1,00 acres, and after giving liberally of the same to his children still owns 200 acres of valuable land, sixty acres of which are in an excellent state of cultivation, and produces one half bale of cotton to the acre. He began farming for himself in Georgia about 1836, and three years later was married, his wife being Miss Sarah CRANE, by whom he became the father of five children: Nancy Adaline (born July 29, 1840), Martha J. (born February 8, 1843), Andrew J. (born June 28, 1845, Christopher C. (born December 6, 1847), and a child that died in infancy. For five years after his marriage Mr. ALLEN tilled the soil, and then engaged in the hat business, a calling he successfully followed for eighteen years, at the end of which time he returned to his farm, where he still lives. He has filled the position of tax assessor for six successive years, and has also held the office of justice of the peace for four years. He is a stanch Republican in politics, a member of the A. F. & A. M., and has been a member of the Missionary Baptist Church for many years. His wife, who passed from life August 3, 1883, had long been a member of this church.

Christopher C. ALLEN

Christopher C. ALLEN was born in Heard County, Georgia, on December 6, 1847, his father, W. H. ALLEN, being also a Georgian and the father of four children, three of whom are living and reside in Ashley County, Arkansas, a daughter having died in 1880. The father was a farmer in his native state, and being lured by the sale of cheap and furtile lands he came to Arkansas in 1860, and with his family settled on a small farm in Ashley County, but since the last named date has devoted his attention exclusively to the successful management of his real estate, and is now one of the well-to-do men of its section. His wife passed from life on August 3, 1882. After leaving Georgia Christopher C. ALLEN had no opportunities for attending school, and during the Civil War he spent the most of the time on the home farm. During the years 1871-72 he sold goods at Pine Hill, and in 1889 he was appointed postmaster of Hamburg, to which place he moved his family that his children might enjoy the advantages which the town schools afforded. While a tiller of the soil he was one of the few farmers that believed in diversified farming, and puts the theory into practice, raising not only cotton, but corn, oats, etc., and also breeds and raises horses, mules, cattle and hogs. He has been a successful farmer, and of the 1,200 acres of land that he owns he has 300 acres under cultivation, well improved, with good buildings, orchard, etc. Throughout his life he has been an energetic, progressive man, thoroughly alive to every duty as a citizen, and has filled his place in the world well. He belongs to the Baptist Church, and is a Mason, and a member of the Republican party. He has been associate county judge on the board of registration, justice of the peace, and had the honor of being director of the first public school ever taught in the county.

Jane HARRIS

From the PAULDING NEW ERA (Paulding County, GA) March 6, 1884

MRS. JANE HARRIS - ONE HUNDRED AND ONE YEARS OLD

Mrs. Jane HARRIS the widow of Charles HARRIS formerly of this county, now of Haralson County, residing with her son-in-law, Mr. S. GANN, Sr., is one hundred and one years old. She is the mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and proud great-great grandmother of near four hundred descendants.

She never had but one husband. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, in consequence of which she now obtains a pension of $90.00 per annum from the national government. She has been a constant member of the Primitive Baptist Church for eighty years and says if it was possible for her to live on she will be a member eighty years more.

She tells some very interesting and laughable stories about her visits among her friendly Indian neighbors, while they were in this county. One of which is that they would all seat themselves around a pot of soup and a large wooden spoon was passed around, each in turn taking and drinking a spoonful straight up from the pot. Occasionally, Shee-dah (the dog) would intrude and receive a stroke on the head with the spoon. The dexterous use of the spoon caused the soup to decrease in quantity very fast, until all appetites were completely satisfied, at which time Shee-dah was permitted to come forward and satisfy his taste according to the demands of his stomach.

Her (Mrs. HARRIS) acquaintances among the continental soldiers who had a hand in the Revolutionary War was considerable lot, they are all gone now, no one left to tell the hardships endured in those days which ever the hearts of patriots, whigs, traitors or tories, She was born in Pendleton District, S.C. from which place her husband went to the war of 1812.

Our townsman, Mr. F. M. GANN, is her grandson. He has been a resident of this county for forty years.

Note: There is an article on this HARRIS family in Kin Kollecting, Vol VIII # 4 Spring 1994.

Jane HARRIS is mentioned as a charter member of the Concord Baptist Church, which was the first church of any denomination to be constituted in Cobb County, Georgia. Her beginnings emerged "When rattlesnakes darted fangs of death from their lairs in the woods, when wild animals and Indians roamed the section, and pine knots were burned for light, God, in His providence, sent a few Baptist to Floyds, Cobb County, as an arm of Nance's Creek Church in DeKalb---" The first meetings ere held in the spring of 1832. There were seventeen members in the original congregation who first worshiped in a log cabin schoolhouse located about two miles west of Smyrna.

STUART (STEWART), WOLFE. My paternal grandfather Selvin S. STUART was born 23 January 1893 in Johnsville, AR. He was a World War I veteran and spent 30+ years in VA medical facilities (North Little Rock, AR and St. Louis, MO) and died and is buried in St. Louis, MO. His father was Billie STUART. Children: Samuel Maxwell b. 2 October 1917 (my father); Lester b. 1919 in Sumpter or Crossett, AR; Virgil b. 1921 in Sumpter, AR.; Nanny Bea b. 1923 in Sumpter or Hamburg, AR, d. at age 9 and buried in Snyder, AR. My paternal grandmother was Winnie Bea WOLFE STUART b. in Snyder, AR with other members of her family. She had a brother named John WOLFE, her father was Fate WOLFE. It is my understanding that the STUART family lived in Milo, AR. Samuel Maxwell married Mary Oma HOWE on 16 April 1938 in Hamburg, AR. Their children: Charles Edward STUART b. 21 May 1939 in Hamburg; Samuel Leroy b. 2 March 1944; Carolyn Sue b. 27 February 1947; Janet. If anyone has information or records on this STUART and WOLFE family I would like to correspond. Our name sometimes is misspelled STEWART.

Janet STUART, 878 Garfield Avenue, Coos Bay, OR 97420.

DEAL, RICE - Looking for descendants of Lemarcus and Sarah BARRETT DEAL from South Carolina through Noxubee County, Mississippi, to Ashley County around 1844. Children: Nancy HERRIN, Alexander, Adeline TERRAL, Mary FAIRCHILD, Sarah COX, Marcus L., John W., William J. DEAL. My ancestor Marcus L. married Sarah RICE, daughter of Benjamin F. and Martha Ann GARDNER RICE. Marcus's children: Charlie D., Genie, Cecil W., Alice LEWIS, Moses, Thomas, Sarah, John, and Elizabeth DENSON. I am totally stumped on the RICE line. I would like to correspond with anyone connected with these lines. I have a lot of information to share.

Jeanie NANCE, 518 Valmire Dr., Columbia, S. C. 29212.

I am searching for information on Rupurt and Jessie LINDSEY in the Ashley County area, and would like to correspond with anyone with information on them.
